Reminscences of Little Joe

East Gastonia, N. C.
March 10, 1946

Mr. Joseph B. Johnston,
Dear Mr. Johnston:

The literature on Barium you sent me reached me safely, and I found it to be very interesting, especially the pamplet on Little Joe's Church. This brought to my mind things I have not thought of for many years.

I must say that it is true Joe's favorite song was "When the roll is called up yonder," although I had not thought of that in many years.

Joe could be crying and we could say, "Laugh Joe, Laugh," and he could start laughing with the tears still rolling down his cheeks. Once we were singing songs in the chapel and we sang "Old Black Joe", and Joe began crying. Miss Celeste Boyd said, "Joe, we are not singing about you, we are singing about a black man named Joe." Then Joe began laughing with tears still rolling down his cheeks. We also sang "Hail Columbia, Call the Muster Roll, All true men are with you heart and soul, Wave Old Glory, let the eagle scream. Truth and right and justice are supreme." Joe though the words of the last line were "truth and right and just a saucer of cream."

The Pastor's Paragraph

By REV. F. B. BENTON

"A Light in a Dark World"

The world in which we live is a place of beauty and goodliness in which God has made bountiful provision for all the needs of his creatures. But evil long ago made its entrance into God's world and the trail of the serpent which is everywhere evident has time and again threatened to obscure the handiwork of the Creator. The day in which we live is dark with problems brought on by hate and greed and fear. Men yearn for something that will lighten the darkness and give them assurance that good will prevail.

God in his wisdom and love has provided an unfailing light for all who will use it. The Psalmist, facing the evil and darkness of his own day, knew of this light and exclaimed, "Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path." And Peter, writing centuries later in another period of darkness, echoes, "We have the word of prophecy made more sure, whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a lamp that shineth in a dark place."

The scripture makes a definite claim to throw light upon the areas of greatest human need. Throughout the Old Testament a beacon is focused upon the coming Christ who shall win the victory over evil for all men. The New Testament presents the claim of Jesus of Nazareth to be this deliverer and King and offers the promise of His unfailing care to all His followers. To those sunk in sin it says that "He that believeth is not condemned". To those confronted by death it says that "he that believeth hath everlasting life'.' To those who are worried (and there is cause for worry today if ever) it declares, "Be careful for nothing but — let your requests be made known unto God, and the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." No matter

Death Notice

"Mrs. Prayer Meeting died recently at the First Neglected Church, on Worldly Avenue." Born many years ago in the midst of great revivals, she was a strong healthy child, fed largely on testimony and scriptural holiness, soon growing into world-wide prominence, and was one of the most influential members of the famous church family.

For the past several years Sister Prayer Meeting has been in failing health, gradually wasting away until rendered helpless by stiffness of knees, coldness of heart, inactivity, and weakness of purpose and willpower. At the last she was but a shadow of her former self. Her last whispered words were inquiries concerning the strange absence of her loved ones, now absent from her presence, busy in the marts of trade and places of worldly amusement. Her older brother, Brother Classmeeting, has been dead for many years.

"Experts, including Dr. Works, Dr. Reform and Dr. Joiner, disagreed as to the cause of her fatal illness, administering large doses

Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Benton and Elizabeth

The entire community at Barium is overjoyed at the coming of the new pastor and his family to Little Joe's Church. You will see the three reasons why just above. The whole family of three has already endeared themselves to everyone.

Rev. Francis B. Benton is a native of Alabama. He graduated from Southwestern University at Memphis in 1936, with the degree of B. A. After teaching two years at McCallie School in Chattanooga he took his Seminary training at Columb a Seminary, Decatur, Ga. where he graduated in 1941 with the degree of B. D.

Mr. Benton was licensed and ordained by the Presbytery of Knoxville, May 11, 1941.

Before coming to Barium Mr. Benton had served in two very successful pastorates in Etowah and Dyersburg, Tenn.

In January 1944, Mr. Benton was married to Miss Mildred Thomas of Charlotte. Mrs Benton is a graduate of the Assembly's Training School in Richmond, Va.

The third and most interesting member of the family group is is Elizabeth Louise better known as Betty.

We heartily and happily welcome this family to Presbyterian Orphans' Home. We cordially invite the members of our Messenger Family to attend worship with us and hear Mr. Benton preach. We are sure you will agree with us that we are very fortunate in securing this man who has accepted the unanimous call of Little Joe's Church.

Barium Teams Wind Up Successful Season

Last month's Messenger brought the story of our 1946 Basketball up through February 5th, then on February 8th the most exciting games of the whole year were played at Kannapolis. Our girls defeated Kannapolis 24-13, but did not have too easy a time doing it. Our boys pulled an upset, winning 29-25. This was the first defeat administered to the Kannapo-

Finally, And In Conclusion

For several months since the departure of Rev Thos. C. Cook and the coming of the new pastor, Rev Francis B. Benton, I have been priviledged to write a sermon each month for the Messenger.

I wish to express my thanks for the letters received and the kind words spoken about my efforts.

I am sure we may all look forward with pleasure and profit to the fine things which will come from Mr. Benton's pen.

R. S. ARROWOOD.

Library Notes

Our library here at Barium is one of the things we are very proud of. Perhaps no other school in Iredell County system has so well equipped library as ours.

We use the library page system whereby students under the general supervision of Miss Ruth Troutman, English and French teacher, take charge of the library during the periods when the students go there for reference work, reading or studying. Mary Morgan has charge of the over-due notices; Jeane Steppe, of the stock room; Miriam Huddleston keeps the two big rooms neat and attractive, looking after our plants, bulletin board and the general appearance; Blanche Feimster takes the responsibility of seeing that the magazines and periodicals are properly stamped and put in place. Other student librarians who "keep the desk" and aid pupils in finding materials are: Dewie Belle Buie, Lucy Gray Johnson, Lavona Morrison, Dorothy Shepherd, Janie Hall, Helen Vinson and Margaret Katen.

We use the card catalogue sys-

Memorial Fund Continues To Grow

The Memorial Fund for the new church at Presbyterian Orphans' Home continues to grow steadily. It has now attained the wonderful total of $43,364.23 which is the actual value of the bonds and cash on hand. For the past two years this fund has grown on the average of one thousand dollars per month.

If building conditions were normal we would begin at once on the first unit of our building as we estimate that in normal times we could build either the auditorium or the Educational Building for $50,000. But owing to abnormal building conditions the Committee on Buildings and Grounds do not plan at this time to begin any major building program. They hope that by waiting, to get much better value for the funds contributed as memorials.

While no final plans have been approved by the regents it is thought that the Auditoruim and the Educational Building can be erected for $100,000. We are happy that we have made such fine progress toward reaching that goal.

Attends Convention In Winston-Salem

On March 8th and 9th in Winston-Salem at the Robert E. Lee hotel, the annual State Beta Club Convention was held. Four of us members - W. A. Johnson, Maggie Katen, Lucile Smith, and Dewie Belle Buie were chosen to represent our local chapter. We were very fortunate to be accomodated with nice living quarters at Children's Home. A talent show was staged by Beta members of various chapters on Friday night. The show lasted well into the night but none became restless, becaused skilled talent was displayed by every contestant. Saturday, we attended several business meetings which dealt chiefly with ways of promoting leadership and activity among the individual chapters. The election of state officers was held in the afternoon after which the meeting was adjourned. From 4:00 to 5:00, the girls were invited to an informal tea at Salem College. Following the tea, we scurried "home" and donned our formals for an exciting evening. The banquet coming first and then the ball. During the banquet, we had speeches from the newly-elected officers and from C. C. Ervin, superintendent of Rowan County schools. The ball began at 9:30 and lasted until mid-night. There was a very good orchestra, which made the dance much more enjoyable.

Suggestions to the Orphanage Secretaries

As many new orphanage Secretaries are now being installed in local Auxiliaries, we offer the folowing suggestinons:

The Orphanage Secretary represents the Orphanage to her Auxiliary all during the year.

The Auxiliaries have supported the Orphanage in a wonderful way in the past, and we are very grateful for this support.

Local conditions will, of course, determine the activities of the Auxiliaries in relation to the

News From Some of the Cottages

HOWARD COTTAGE

Hello Folks,

Here we are bringing you the news for this month.

We have been having a grand time in the nice sunshine.

Edna Ellis and Pattie Inman had visitors last Sunday and they stayed most of the day.

We are practicing our play for the Kiwanis and we hope some of you can come to see it.

We got our report cards this month and just Pattie Inman made the honor roll, but everyone is going to try very hard and see how many can bring home the honor roll next time.

We went to the show Saturday and it was very good.

That is all for this month but you will hear from us again next time.

— The Howard Girls

ANNIE LOUISE

Hello Folks,

This is the Annie Louise Girls bringing you the latest news from our cottage.

We got our report cards last week and very few were on the honor roll, but we hope to have twice as many next time.

Lois Dellinger, Linda Inman, Shirly Plyler, Shirly Shaw, Phebee Cochron, Martha Nell Hall, and Mary Bowles have recited the Catechism for young children. Most of the other girls in our cottage have recited it before.

Our basketball teams entered a tournament at Landis. Our boys lost out but our girls go to the finals tonight. We also enter a tournament at Catawba College this week. Our last game of the year was with Statesville and we won.

We are all enjoying these beautiful days. It seems as if King Winter, Jack Frost, and Queen Snow have returned home after wearing out their welcome.

We have a number of girls who are going to be in Kiwanis and we are looking forward to the time when we can preform for our dear friends.

WOMAN'S BUILDING

Hello Folks,

This month you will call this more or less a gossip column since we are just catching up on all the gossip from this section of the campus.

Since we last called on you we have lost one of our matrons and picked up a swell one named Miss Coffey and we surely do enjoy her coming in and playig the piano for us. We like Miss Coffey a great deal and we appreciate the people from Steele Creek for sharing her with us. In our joy of having a new matron we also regret losing Mrs. Hoyle who was very good to us and meant a great deal to us, and her husband isn't bad at all. He is serving as a Chaplain in the Army and he is really some guy.

Now folks settle down and get comfortable for the gossip from our cottage.

Helen Morgan and Virginia Presnell are taking turns with Horace Denton during the basketball games, and you can see Virginia on one side of the gym smiling at him and Helen on the other side. They should be watching those wonderful games.

I wonder why Betty Joe, Lucille Stricklin and Ernestine are so excited about the big tournament coming up this week. It could be that Landis is entering. Hey, "Strick," quit turning flips.

Our "all star" player, Adelia Knight is a little on the blue side now. Could it be that she hasn't heard from the Navy in a good while? Is it that he is out of the service or on a leave?

We all wonder what Earl Adams was doing over at Howard playing dodge ball? He looks okay outside but how about inside, "Red" Price.

Mary Francis Isenhour doesn't seem so sad because Donald Pettus left. She seems to be doing better with Roscoe Smith.

This seems to be the first time we haven't caught Lee Vinson writing a service guy. Could it be that she has lost all interest in boys or is she looking for a better one?

We haven't much to say about Helen Hawley since she has already received a diamond. But the guy isn't bad at all.

This wedding that Willie went to two weeks ago. I bet he wishes that it were he and Miriam getting married. How about it Miriam?

Well that is about all for this time so we will say so long for awhile.

Pastor's Paragraphs

what our need may be the Scripture offers blanket coverage: "My God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

Anyone can make claims, but the proof of the ability to fulfil them is more difficult. Peter can say, "We have this word of prophecy made more sure." He and the others who followed Jesus during His earthly ministry knew that of which they spoke. They had heard the divine voice at His baptism, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." They have seen this same Jesus glorified in the Transfiguration. And even more important, they had seen Him risen from the dead and ascended into heaven. It is on the basis of such witnesses that the claims of the Scripture were first given credence. Nineteen centuries have added such overwhelming proof in the lives of countless Christians that denial is no longer possible.

The Word of God is a never-failing light for those who will search the Scripture and lay it up in their hearts. It is the one lamp with power to lighten the darkness that is over the world today.

tem. Our accession book shows that we have catalogued 5,559 books 329 of these books were added this year. 177 of these books were sent to the elementary school. Sixty six of the books added this year were gifts. We are particularly pleased over a new set of Compton's Encyclopedias.

Our library has been newly painted this year and flourescent lights have been installed. Posters by Adelia Knight and Earl Allen help to make it inviting.

Fifteen magazines and three newspapers come regularly to us; friends on the campus supplement this number by giving us their copies. These are all filed for reference.

An attractive display of our new books was made and shown at a teachers meeting last fall.

The pages are working on collecting and mounting pictures to have available to teachers who wish to use them in connection with their particular subjects.

Another of our projects was to make possible a small library at Rumple Hall for the girls that live there by putting in their living room juvenile books which were not regularly classified for high school students.

Most of the children at Barium like to read books. We like Wordsworth's quotations about books which we have on one of our posters:

Dream books are each a world;
and books we know
Are substantial world both pure and good.
Round these with tendrils, strong
as flesh and blood,
Our pastimes and happiness will grow."

1. Make quilts, bureau scarfs, towels, etc., for the use of the Orphanage.
2. Check on the ones who are getting the Messenger, having us discontinue any duplicates and adding to the mailing list any names of families not now receiving it.
3. Follow the columns of the Messenger and give to the Auxiliary any new current interest.
4. Keep before your Auxiliary the suggestions of your Presbyterial or Synodical Officers with reference to the support funds and Home.
5. Look after any program the Auxiliary may have to clothe one or more children at Barium.

The doctor's little daughter had strayed into his surgery. Watching him as he tested the heart and lungs of a patient, she suddenly spoke: "Getting any new stations, Daddy?"

"Where were you born?"

"I was born in the United States, but I went to school in England."

"Boy! You had a long way to go every day, didn't you?"

Dinner Party Given For Mr. J. B. Johnston

To honor Mr. Johnston on his birthday the Virginia Hall Circle had a dinner party which we all enjoyed.

The long table had the birthday cake in the center and lovely baskets of jonquils and yellow candles were used.

The places were marked with attractive place cards.

Mr. Johnston was presented a subscription to "Life Magazine." In addition to the members of the Circle and Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Lowrance, Mr. and Mrs. Benton, Bob Johnston, Joe Long, Pleas Norman, Billy and Tom McCall, Joe Ben Gibbs, Herbert McMasters, and Lee Spencer, returned service men.

The members of the Virginia Hall Circle are Miss Carpenter, Chairman, Dewey Bell Buie, Lucille Smith, Eleanor Pope, Adelia Knight, Blance Feimster, Toni Delancey, Lee Vinson, Lucy Johnson, Miriam Huddleston, Helen Hawley, Jean McDonald, Hannah Price, Mary Frances Isenhour, Maggie, Katon, Mary Ann Ryder, Myrtle Rushing.

We missed having our big party in the gym as we usually have on account of a basketball tournament.

I doubt if he ever learned better.

In looking over the literature you sent me I failed to see any thing about dogs. When I was there some of the boys would set traps and catch rabbits alive. They would call the dogs to the front of Rumple Hall and let them see the rabbits. The rabbits would be turned loose while some one would hold the dogs until the rabbit got a little start, then all the dogs and most of the boys would run after them. Not many got away from old Joe, the best hound. I think old Joe died before the fire in Synod's Cottage after I left there

I think some dog or dogs went mad and a good many of the children had to take the treatment at Statesville. I would like to know if this is true, and if there are any dogs there now.

I hope I can visit Barium before Thanksgiving and look over some of the places I have never seen, such as the new horse barn.

Please have the Messenger sent to Mrs. Katherine L. Smith, 815 E. 2nd Ave. Gastonia, N. C. This lady is very interested in Barium, but her name has never been on your mailing list.

With best wishes I remain,
Yours very truly,

Barium Teams Wind

lis boys this season, and the fact that it was on their home court made the game all the greater a surprise.

Maybe our teams were on their toes a little more than usual because they were looking forward to a visit to Mrs. Ritchie, she used to be Miss Mary Turner and most of the boys had been under her care at sometime or other at Barium Springs. Anyhow, we all went out to her home, happy and hungry, and we left there still happy - not any longer hungry.

On Tuesday, February 12th, our teams journeyed way up to Union Grove for a non-conference game and lost both games. Those tall twins coached by Mr. Homer Keever were just too much for our girls and we lost 45-34. Our boys lost 28-18. On the 14th, Monroe came to Barium and we won both of those games by a comfortable margin.

The Juniors had a game on the same day (14th) with Statesville, losing both of them. On February 15th Mooresville came to Barium and Barium won both of those games, both of them being very hard fought. It is surprising how the Mooresville girls' team without winning a single victory managed to give all of the leading teams their toughest games. On Tuesday, the 19th, Kannapolis came to Barium, and while Barium won the girls' game, they couldn't manage the boys. They took us 35-29 and headed from right there on to the championship.

Then the Barium teams took a rest while we entertained the Mid-Piedmont schools for our annual tournament. There were 42 teams participating this year, and on Monday night, February 25th, the finals were played with the West Yadkin girls winning and the Stanley boys. The girls won over Scotts and the boys over Davidson high school. On Tuesday our return conference games with Statesville were played and this time Barium was victorious in both games, certainly an upset as far as the Statesville girls were concerned. The scores were 17-12 for the girls; 26-20 for the boys, and that wound up the conference season, the Barium girls being in second place and the Barium boys in third place. Our girls lost two games, won eleven, and tied one. Our boys won eleven and lost three.

Then our teams entered the Landis tournament, both teams winning on the first go-round, the girls defeating Lilesville, the boys defeating Berryhill. On the second go-round our boys lost to Mount Ulla by one point, our girls defeated Granite Quarry which put them in the finals. In the finals they lost to Scotts 23-21, and then just a few days later they entered the Salisbury tournament for the South Piedmont teams. Our teams were tired and they did not get very far in this tournament, both teams losing to schools over which they had been victorious twice in the season. The Barium boys lost to Lexington 29-28 in the first round; the girls lost to Concord 30-11 in the second round.

And now all the basketball that is ahead of us is the Junior Tournament, the results of which will be published elsewhere in this paper.

Barium has had two good teams. They certainly played up to their full ability during the season and have beaten teams that on paper should have walked away with them. As usual, both teams finished in the first division in the conference standing and are already making plans to be still higher in next year's standing. You never can tell - our teams can do almost everything they make up their minds to.

Attends Convention

Finally, after a restful night at Children's Home, we accompanied Mrs. Brown from Children's Home to hear a very inspiring sermon by Dr. George Mauze of the First Presbyterian Church. We were then Mrs. Brown's guest for lunch in town. After saying thank you and goodbyes to our friends at Children's Home, we returned home. We feel that we have really profited in securing helpful information at the convention and we hope that much of it will be of value to us in the future. Although our club is still in its infancy, we have hopes of climbing and if we are able to maintain our three Beta objectives - Achievement, Character and Leadership, then we can assume ourselves of being well on the road to success.

Twelfth Grade — Amos Hardy, Dewie Belle Buie, Lucille Smith.

A cat may look at a king, but it had better be in a hurry about it. The supply of kings may not last much longer.

"Many birds sing without opening their bills," says a naturalist. Maybe we'd feel more like singing if we didn't open ours.

Customer (in drug store): "I want a small pink tablet."

Druggist: "What's your trouble?"

Customer: "I want to write a letter."

"A good beginning and a good ending are the making of a speech."

"Yes, if they come close enough together."

Question: "What did one candle say to the other candle?"

Answer: "Are you going out tonight?"

Paul: "What did the man at the garage say was wrong with your tires?"

Bill: "Well, for one thing he said the air was beginning to show through."

Mary: "Do you know what the patriotic worm did?"

Harry: "No, I don't! What?"

Mary: "He joined the Apple corps."

"And what is a pussycat clad in?" asked the teacher of the tinies. "What is it that protects her from cold? Does she wear a pinafore, or does she wear a little jacket?"

"But, teacher!" exclaimed an unimaginative little pupil, "aint you never seen a cat?"

"Could anyone come between us, Love?" he asked in accents tender.

"Well," spoke the young brother from under the lounge, "they'd have to be mighty slender."

CHIRST'S APPEAL TO YOUTH

Youth is essentially the most religious period of life. Those two shining words go naturally together —youth and religion. Youth and Jesus are in harmony with one another.

For one thing youth has this in common with Jesus, that youth is in love with life. "Life is a long fatigue," was the wearied exclamation of Talleyrand, the French statesman. Normal youth has little sympathy with that state of mind. It is impressed rather with the wonder and the romance of life, and can echo the poet's exclamation,

Oh, the wild joys of living!
How good is man's life, the mere living! how fit to employ
All the heart and the soul and the sense forever in joy!

Now that is in full accord with the religion of Jesus.

Then youth has this also in common with Jesus, that youth is in love with adventure. Youth doesn't crave safety first at all. It prefers adventure. "For a desperate venture," said Rupert of the Rhine long ago, "for a desperate venture give me an army of boys." And how true that has been found in these recent years. Youth responds instinctively to the sentiment of the song of the builders of the Panama Canal:

Got any rivers they say are uncrossable,
Got any mountains you can't tunnel through?
We specialize in the wholly impossible,
Doing what nobody ever could do.

How that spirit fits into the religion of Jesus. Why, his religion is the adventure of adventures—biggest adventure this world has ever known. What a sublime, incredible adventure at the beginning! Here he comes—a young man of the peasant class setting out from an obscure town in a remote corner of the world to win everybody to his way of life. He gathers about him a handful of young men as lowly in station as himself, mostly rough fishermen from the little ports around the lake of Galilee.

The history of Christianity has been one long series of adventures. All down these centuries we see men and women in the name and the spirit of Jesus engaging in the wildest adventures, embarking on forlorn hopes, espousing lost causes; and the lost causes have in the end become victorious causes.

The truth is that if this world is to be saved it must be saved by the young people. If ever the kingdom of Christ is to be set up on the earth it must be set up by the young. They are the only ones who have life enough and are adventurous enough and can go mad enough to do it. We grown-ups are too old and blind and stiff to make a very good job of it. "We must be young to do great things," said Goethe.

What a grand thing it is to be a real Christian in such a time as this, and to have a real part in the colossal adventure of winning the world to the way of Christ. O young hearts, we need you, the church needs you, the nation needs you, the world needs you, Christ needs you, and you need him.

HENRY ALFORD Porter, in The Baptist Student.

SPRINGTIME

Now it is springtime,
The winter has gone.
The birds are returning;
The crops are all sown.
The flowers are waking,
From their long winter's sleep;
The frogs are coming up,
Out of the deep.
So it's off to the meadow
That I must now go;
To see God's flowers,
In spring's fashion show.

— Mary Morgan.

Death Notice

of organization, socials, contests and drives, but to no avail. A post-mortem showed that a deficieney of spiritual food, coupled with lack of fasting, faith, heartfelt religion, shameless desertion, and non-support, were contributing causes. Only a few were present at her death, sobbing over memories of her past beauty and power. Carefully selected pallbearers were urged to tenderly bear her remains away, but failed to appear. There were no flowers. Her favorite hymns, 'Amazing Grace' and 'Rock of Ages,' were not sung. Miss Ima Modern rendered 'Beautiful Isle of Somewhere,' but none had any idea where this fancied isle might be. The body rests in the beautiful cemetery of Bygone Glories, awaiting the summons from above.

"In honor of her going, the church doors will be closed on Wednesday nights, save on the third Wednesday of each month, when the Ladies, Pink Lemonade Society serves refreshments to the members of the Men's Handball Team."
